

Join us on Wednesday, May 13th for a movie and music night! We will screen a film from Bosnia & Herzegovina, followed by a DJ spinning lively Bosnian music, from 7 p.m. to midnight.

This is a preview event for the sixth annual Bosnian-Herzegovinian Film Festival (BHFF™), which is taking place May 15-16 at Tribeca Cinemas. BHFF™ is featuring films by emerging Bosnian-Herzegovinian filmmakers or films that have Bosnia-Herzegovina as their theme. This unique cultural event organized by two New York area-based not-for-profit organizations, Voice of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Inc. and Academy of Bosnia and Herzegovina, provides a platform for the exposure of up-and-coming and internationally-renowned filmmakers, thus contributing to a greater understanding of this country, its diverse culture, complex history and challenges it faces.

7:45 p.m.: screening of “Totally Personal” (“Sasvim Lično”) by an award-winning film director, Nedžad Begović.

Strikingly original and described by Variety as “A total success,” “Totally Personal” is a heart-warming documentary about the experiences of the filmmaker, who tells his story with an uplifting and wry sense of humor. The film incorporates intimate details of his family’s survival during the recent war in Bosnia and Herzegovina: his mother, who used to burn old shoes for fuel, and the pear tree in their garden that served as the only source of vitamin C for his children. “Totally Personal” is the winner of Best Documentary Film at Bucharest Film Festival and Best World Documentary Film at Jihlava International Film Festival. In addition to other film festivals, it was also presented at the official competition at Tribeca Film Festival.
