THE FOURTH ANNUAL BOSNIAN-HERZEGOVINIAN FILM FESTIVAL (BHFF™)
TO BE HOSTED AT TRIBECA CINEMAS
BHFF™ Also Announces Call for Entries

NEW YORK, January 2007: This year, the Bosnian-Herzegovinian Film Festival (BHFF™), which showcases the prolific and award-winning tradition of filmmaking in Bosnia and Herzegovina, will be hosted at Tribeca Cinemas, year-round home of the Tribeca Film Festival. The fourth annual BHFF™, presented in association with the Tribeca Film Festival, will take place at Tribeca Cinemas in New York City May 11 – 12, 2007. At the same time, BHFF™ has also opened its submissions process for its fourth annual festival and is inviting entries from filmmakers.

This unique cultural event organized by two New York area-based not-for-profit organizations, Voice of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Inc. and Academy of Bosnia and Herzegovina, represents and celebrates contemporary Bosnian-Herzegovinian cinematography and provides a platform for the exposure for emerging and internationally-renowned Bosnian-Herzegovinian filmmakers.

Since its founding in 2003, the festival has attracted considerable public attention and highlighted short and feature films such as “The Perfect Circle” by Ademir Kenović, “Days and Hours” by Pjer Žalica, “Go West” by Ahmed Imamović, documentaries such as “Crime and Punishment” by Maria F. Warsinski, “Justice Unseen” by Aldin Arnautović and Refik Hodžić and many more.

Final submissions deadline for entries is March 31, 2007. The committee will consider feature films, short films, documentary films, documentary short films and animated films by Bosnian-Herzegovinian filmmakers but also films that have Bosnia and Herzegovina as their theme and are not created by Bosnian-Herzegovinian filmmakers. For more information and to download the entry form, go to www.bhffnyc.org/Entry_form_2007.pdf.
